

Media giant, Sinclair Broadcasting, has made a decision to run an anti Kerry documentary. This action is but one example of how media consolidation is harmful to the public interests and strikes at the core values of our democracy.

Our society cannot sit idly by and let this happen. It's time for our government and the FCC, acting for the public interest and the future of our democracy to take action.

Drew Fedak
618 Independence Way
Murfreesboro, Tennessee 37129